Fact Finder

Dear Fact Finder,

Thank you for your email of May 16, 2013 requesting information about records of the referral of the Road Paving Expenditure in Cayman Brac; Public Interest Report; April 2012 to the Office of the Attorney General and the response received from the Attorney General.

We have considered your application for information and are pleased to grant you partial access to the records being requested. The letter to the Attorney General from the Auditor General will be granted in full and is attached in the email. However, the response we received back from the Attorney General is exempt under section 17 of The Freedom of Information Law (FOI Law) as the record is considered legal professional privilege.

We can however inform you that the Attorney General was unable to identify any actionable "breach of statutory duty". Accordingly, there was no basis on which he could take legal action.

There is no fee for providing this record to you.

The Auditor General was involved in the review of this freedom of information request and therefore an internal review process is not available to you as described under section 33 of the FOI Law.

However, you have the right under section 42 of the FOI Law to appeal to the Information Commissioner within 30 days of the receipt of this letter the decision taken by the Auditor General and the Freedom of Information Manager of Office of the Auditor General.
