Dear Chicken Fox,

On the 4th of May we provided you with a report in response to your request. Unfortunately, we provided you with a near final report that went to the Board; however, it was not the final report. We have now reviewed the final report that went to the Port Authority Board under the FOI Law. The findings of the earlier version of the report are consistent with this final report, but the final report does include more evidence in the appendices relating to issues 11-13.

We also include a redacted addendum to the report, which should be read in conjunction with the Port Director's response to the original report. The Port Director's response will need to be released from the Port Authority.

We have now redacted sections of the report for using sections 20(1)(d) of the FOI Law (i.e. "(d) its disclosure would otherwise prejudice, or would be likely to prejudice, the effective conduct of public affairs.") and 23(1) of the FOI Law for personal information.

There is no fee for providing these records to you.

The Auditor General was involved in the review of this freedom of information request and therefore an internal review process is not available to you as described under section 34 of the FOI Law.

However, you have the right under section 42 of the FOI Law to appeal to the Deputy Ombudsman (Freedom of Information) within 30 days of the receipt of this letter for the decision taken by the Auditor General and the Freedom of Information Manager of the Office of the Auditor General.
