

HOSPITALITY PROVIDED BY OAG SENIOR MANAGEMENT

---

Reporting Period: Six months to 31 December 2014

| Auditor General – Alastair Swarbrick |            |                  |          |             |
|--------------------------------------|------------|------------------|----------|-------------|
| Date                                 | Purpose    | Number of People | Location | Amount ($) |
|                                      | Nil Return |                  |          |             |
|                                      |            |                  |          |             |

| Deputy Auditor General – Garnet Harrison |            |                  |          |             |
|--|------------|------------------|----------|-------------|
| Date                                     | Purpose    | Number of People | Location | Amount ($) |
|  | Nil Return |                  |          |             |
|  |            |                  |          |             |

| Audit Manager – Martin Ruben |  |                  |                     |             |
|------------------------------|--|------------------|---------------------|-------------|
| Date                         | Purpose  | Number of People | Location            | Amount ($) |
| 4 Dec                        | To discuss Government's Waste Management Strategy and explain OAG's role | 2                | Casanova Restaurant | 40.64       |
|                              |  |                  |                     |             |

| Audit Manager – Patrick Smith |            |                  |          |             |
|-------------------------------|------------|------------------|----------|-------------|
| Date                          | Purpose    | Number of People | Location | Amount ($) |
|                               | Nil Return |                  |          |             |
|                               |            |                  |          |             |