

SENIOR MANAGEMENT REMUNERATION

---

Reporting Period: 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012

The remuneration and benefits of the OAG senior management are disclosed in bandings of CI$5000 in line with the recommendations of the Information Commissioners Office.

Name	Grade	Post	Remuneration $	Benefits $
Alastair Swarbrick	C	Auditor General	130,001 to 135,000	25,001 to 30,000
Garnet Harrison	F	Deputy Auditor General	110,001 to 115,000	25,001 to 30,000
Martin Ruben	G	Audit Principal	100,001 to 105,000	15,001 to 20,000
Patrick Smith	G	Audit Principal	90,001 to 95,000	15,001 to 20,000

Remuneration includes salary, allowances and any additional remuneration for the payout of leave paid during the financial year. Allowances paid during the year were motor car upkeep allowance and acting allowance. All staff received the reinstatement of the Cost of Living Award (3.2%) from December 2011

Benefits include pension and health care insurance payments during the financial year

The Deputy Auditor General's post was regarded to grade F from grade G as from April 2012.